

Haunting

The Family Ruin

Bind my hands and weigh me down
Fill my lungs 'til I am drowned
I'm done, I'm doneI've no reason to seek the light
Please return me to the night
I'm done, I'm doneI need no promise you'll be waiting
I'm coming to meet you there right nowMy path was pulled from underfoot
Simple yet misunderstood
I'm done, I'm doneIt breaks my heart to let you down
But I belong deep underground
I'm done
I need no promise you'll be waiting
I'm coming to meet you there right now
