

The Night of the Triumphator

Satyricon

Come, come infernal war, awake beasts of hell
Free yourself from the chains that have been holding you for 666 years
We await sodomy and destruction It is the night of the triumphator
(Start the burning of heaven)
(and we) sodomize the dirty whores of babylon... on christian ground
On this night we torture the betrayers
Night, night, holy night of the triumphator (rape the nuns, hang the priests, cut the throat of the crying christians)
