

I Don't Care Anymore (Alan Freeman Show 1974)

George Harrison

(speech:)

"ok here we go, for this
We got a b-side to make, ladies and gentlemen,
We haven't got much time now so we better get
Right on with it" I don't care anymore
And I'll kick down anybody's door
To hold you in my arms once more
I'd go anywhere
Y'know I don't care If your man should get uptight
'cause we've been alone for most of the night
Now realize it's our right
To get back up them stairs
Y'know I don't care There's a line I can draw
That often leaves me wanting more
But it's not so often that I feel so sure
Nothing I can do
To stop me falling more in love with you It can't be so bad
What you want that you do not have
It's got you too upset now
I don't think it's unfair
Y'know I don't care
Anymore
And I'll kick down anybody's door
To hold you in my arms once more
I'd go anywhere
Y'know i (very nice, tony)

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>