

Like Calling Up Thunder

The Gun Club

You sent a Jack O'lantern over to my house
To charm me from my kill
I've crosses far too much to bear
But you said you will Now, you look away, look away
Look away and leave me alone I'm calling up thunder
Hands in the open sky
I'm calling up thunder
To the wind and open sky To help myself
To see myself
I'm calling up thunder
I'm calling up thunder With the tears warm against your red dress
Embedded in my brain
I see that we were alike
But we were not the same Now, you look away, look away
And leave me all alone I'm calling up thunder
Hands in the open sky
I'm calling up thunder
To the wind and the open sky To see myself
To help myself
I'm calling up thunder
And I'm calling up thunder, ooh I'm calling up thunder
Hands in the open sky
I'm calling up thunder
To the wind and the open sky To see myself
To help myself
And I'm calling up thunder
And I'm calling up thunder Ghosts, they crawl on the floor
Wondering at it all
I promised I would join them
But, the gesture was too small
Now, I look away, look away
Look away back to myself I'm calling up thunder
Hands to the open sky
I'm calling up thunder
To the wind and the open sky To help myself
To kill myself
I'm calling up thunder
And I'm calling up thunder
