

I Believe in You

Jay Sean

There's a place you can run away and hide, yeah
From the pain, girl, if only for a while
Life has been treating you so wrong
And I don't know if I'd have been that strong So let me know, baby
Is anything you want, I'll be there
Let me know
If I, be the one you run and talk to You should know
That I admire you for every strength
That you have shown
I'll be right where you are 'Cos I believe in you
No matter what I'm by your side
I believe in you
And every things gonna be alright I believe in you
And when it hurts I'll dry your eyes
You'll make it through
'Cos I believe in you Memories of your past will go with time
Fade away like the marks that own your skin
He never broke the person that you are
'Cos he never got to know the girl within, no So let me know, baby
Is anything you want, I'll be there
Let me know
If I, be the one you run and talk to You should know
That I admire you for every strength
That you have shown
I'll be right where you are I believe in you
No matter what I'm by your side
I believe in you
Now every things gonna be alright I believe in you
And when it hurts I'll dry your eyes
You'll make it through
'Cos I believe in you, oh yeah He was the cause and your cure of your heartache
For he was all that you knew, ooh
Don't you believe that you're ever alone
I will be there for you every step of the way I believe in you
No matter what I'll be by your side
I believe in you
Every things gonna be alright I believe in you
And when it hurts I'll dry your eyes
We can make it through

'Cos I believe in you I believe in you
I believe in you
I believe in you
I believe in you
Said, I believe in you We can make it through
Oh, I believe in you
