

You Got It

Etta James

Well you're making a big mistake, girl
Trying to hold back your love from me
'Cause there's nothin' I can't do for you
Sure got the love that you need Everything, anything, in the world
If I can be your man
I would beg, borrow,
I would steal for you, honey
As long as you understand You don't have to worry
What more can say
To make you understand
Oooh, that I don't give a damn who knows it
You are the one, the one I truly need
Baby won't you listen to me You got it, any way you want it
Any way you want it to be
You can have it, take it from me
'Cause it's waiting for you Now if something is on your mind, girl
Got to let me know right away
I will try my best to smooth it over
Nothing's going to stand in the way
Anywhere, anytime, day or night
Don't make no difference to me I will come running, way across town
As long as I know that you need
What I have to give
All that I can to make you feel all right
You got it, anyway you want it
Any way you want it to be
You can have it, take it from me
'Cause it's waiting for you

Songwriters

DON COVAY, DONALD COVAY Published by Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>