

Stumble

Collapsis

The strongest opinion is not afraid of letting go
So, who will lift you up when you stumble?
Stay with me now, I'm alive for the first time
The hardest rain of all is yet to crumble You told me, you told me
I wouldn't have to fall
Halfway down your shoulders The strongest religion is not afraid of losing faith
So, who will lift you up when you stumble?
Stay with me now, I'm alive for the first time
The hardest rain of all is yet to crumble You told me, you told me
I wouldn't have to fall
Halfway down your shoulders
Alright
