

Write Your Story Now

Kevin Devine

I'm running out of things to say to you
This always takes so long, is what you said
Before you said so long
This kind of wordplay gets you ostracized But if you operate inside these perfect lines, you'll be fine
I'm running now, faster, than I ever have before
I'm seeing double and everywhere
Inside my head things look like you again So get your notebook out
And write your story now
Write your story now
Write your story now
