Valkyries

ASKA

[MAGNUS:]
I taste the wrath of your might
[THORSEN:]
I humble before thee dear father above
[MAGNUS:]
So bring down your hammer this night
[THORSEN:]
Your thunder and lightning shall rain from the skyWill I forgive you brother
Will you fight by my side
Blood reigns in Valhalla
To the battlefield we rideBlood! Fire!
And the dead will ride the wings
Of the Valkyries[MAGNUS:]
The dark clan of giants descend
[THORSEN:]
The thirst for revenge burns like fire in our veins
[MAGNUS:]
So fight by my side to the end
[THORSEN:]
With broadswords and axes let the carnage begin[THORSEN:]
I swear by the hand of Odin
And the blood of my first born son
[MAGNUS:]
I'll cast away my indignities
And stand by the chosen ones
Honor and duty - a code to guide my way
[THORSEN:]
When the battle is over, the dead will raise again
On the wings of Valkyries[THORSEN:]
How does it feel when you're cut down
And you can't get back up
When you're down and you need a hand
Someone to give you strength
There's just one thing that will do it
Don't let 'em take it away
It's the calling to battle
And you will ride the wings, yeahBlood! Fire!
And the dead will ride the Wings of honor

And the gods will lead our
Charge to glory
On that day for every man
Who rides
