

Abandoned

Vicious Rumors

I'm waiting around, 'cause I haven't got paid yet
I'm banging my head on the side of the pavement
You're turning this into some kind of a freak show
You gotta stop, I'm still waiting Abandoned again, I thought you were my friend
Abandoned again, I thought you were my friend
But you abandoned me again You're flying your colors for all to see
You're fooling your friends but you ain't fooling me, no
You closed the door and shut me out
What the hell ya' think I'm talking about? Abandoned again, I thought you were my friend
Abandoned, so what? Knife in my gut, no love is lost
Out of the gray, just go away, away I've heard it all, enough of your bullshit
About your mouth, it's time you closed it
You've burned all your bridges, there's nobody left Abandoned again, I thought you were my friend
Abandoned again, I thought you were my friend
But you abandoned me again Abandoned again, abandoned, abandoned
Abandoned
