Bad Liar

The New Amsterdams

I told you everything was fine
You called 'bullshit'
And it's not worth money
If your heart just isn't in itYou've gotta sharp mind
But I'm a bad liar
It's hardly a new disclosureBottle it up, it takes a bottle to get it out
So many pieces of broken glass, razor witYou've got a sharp tongue
But I'm not a bad guy
And I wouldn't try to fuck you overYou can't tell me in the South Seas
That I'm missing out
You don't know me
You have hardly any common groundLet's call it off
Let's take the memories and run
I'll be the villain
The man with the smoking gunI guess this is goodbye
So have a nice life
See you at the Replay Lounge
