

Wait

Earth, Wind & Fire

I've been waitin' so long
Just watchin' the phone for you
To wait, it takes love that's for real
And all that I feel inside too I come prepared, to look in your eyes
And walk side by side with you, baby
Listen for tender words, I'd like to say
Like, "I love you today" and, "I'll wait for you" It's crazy if you think we're just friends
Lovin' when infatuation ends
The wait for you, baby, it now begins You sigh when I come close to your heart
You cry from the start, please wait for me
Your mind shows places you go
Things you don't know, someday, you'll grow Climbin' a mountain high, love, I desire
Inside my heart cries for you
Listen for tender words, I'd like to say
Like, "I love you today" and, "I'll wait for you" I never felt this way
It's crazy if you think we're just friends
Lovin' when infatuation ends
Baby, we're more than friends
I know the wait will end Baby, we're more than friends
I know the wait will end
Baby, we're more than friends
