Why Are We Waiting?

Bis

i'm not a million miles from anywhere but i'm a million miles from getting there i need a focus just to get me up so on the weekdays i just sleep a lot im only comfortable pre-occupied so i'm just looking for something to hide when i open myself i'm always me i am nobody elsecan't blow the world up can't burn the house down and when i grow up i won't make a sound but just...why are we waiting why can't we start changing
always so frustrating
we need rearranging
why are we waitingi understand that breaking ties is hard but should we really be a mile apart what do you think that i am looking for why don't you tell me cause i'm getting bored there is so much that still i need to do but i'm mechanical and so are you we just look to the sun we're going nowhere but we're on the runcan't blow the world up
i will track you down and say...why are we waiting
why are we waitingi had a life but it was swallowed whole so i own nothing that could not be sold i can't remember if i had it planned i chose the water when i made my standwe're just the same we talk like you not quite insane but getting there we're just the same we talk like you not quite insane forgetting!why are we waiting
