

Those Hills

Deine Lakaien

We're lost
We're lost
In stormy waters
Our ship
Our ship
Is running to ground
We're lost
We're lost
In stormy waters
Our ship
Our ship
Is running to ground
Your hand
Your hand
Give me your hand
I'll take you to
The Promise Land
I'll take you to
The Promise Land
I'll take you to
The Promise LandThose hills
Those hills
So dark and high
Are these the hills where we must die
Those hills
Those hills
So fair and high
They lead us to Heaven where we must go
I left
I left
Left all behind
I left my husband
I left my child
I left
I left
I left my childI left my home
To follow you

Just follow your love
I'll follow you
Where to my love
You're taking me
Where to my love
Where to my love Those hills
Those hills
So dark and high
Are these the hills where we must die
Those hills
Those hills
So fair and high
They lead us to Heaven where we must go The pain
The pain
Close on my heels
The pain of guilt
That's following me
The pain
The pain
Close on my heels
The pain of guilt
That's following me Your smile
Your comfort's calming me
Your flickering eyes
Disturbing me
Where to my love
You're taking me
Where to my love
Where to my love Those hills
Those hills
So dark and high
Are these the hills where we must die
Those hills
Those hills
So fair and high
They lead us to Heaven where we must go Your skin
Your skin
So pure and bright
Your skin now glimmers in reddish light
Your skin
Your skin
So pure and bright
Your skin now glimmers in reddish light I see the fires in front of us
I see your eyes
Inflamed with lust

Where are you taking me to my love
Where to my love
Where to my love Those hills
Those hills
So dark and high
Are these the hills where we must die
Those hills
Those hills
So fair and high
They lead us to Heaven where we must go Those hills
Those hills
So dark and high
Are these the hills where we must die
Those hills
Those hills
So fair and high
They lead us to heaven where we must go
