Shame Chamber

Kurt Vile

Everyone's sayin' I should probably give up And hey, I wouldn't wanna waste no time I couldn't look myself in the mirror Then again, why would I?It's just another day in the shame chamber

Living life

to the lowest power

Feeling bad

in the best way a man canShame on you,

shame on you

Shame on you

Oh baby when you cry

it brings a tear to my eye

Oh shame on us(Whoo!)Chubby in the face in a world of muck and slime

Time for the comedown

How can I even look myself in the mirror?

Then again I guess I think IWouldn't really mind in the shame chamber

Living life

To the lowest power

Feeling bad

In the best way a man can Yeah, it's just another day in the shame chamber

Living life

To the lowest power

Feeling bad

In the best way a man canShame on you, shame on you

Shame on you

Oh baby when you cry

It brings a tear to my eye

Oh shame on us(Whoo!)
