

Vengeance

Dream Evil

I have worked for nothing, slaved in vain
All those years that I've been pushed around
They better watch their backs now, those who gave me pain
'Cause vengeance screams their names tonight
All of you sinners
You better run and try to hide
You've all been dreaming
So you better hide to stay alive
Marching out now, out to kill
The rain of blood has just begun
Blocked emotions now released
In darkness you will fear my name
All of you sinners
You better run and try to hide
You've all been dreaming
So you better hide to stay alive
All of you sinners
Can you hear me?
I'm closing in on you
Can't you feel it...I will show no mercy you will not survive
'Cause vengeance screams your names tonight
All of you sinners
You better run and try to hide
You've all been dreaming
So you better hide to stay alive
