The Evil Eye

Six Feet Under

you breathe to die desperate when you speak your final words to me caught between lines you live lies in a broken world
a freshly dug grave is waiting
into the bottomless
as you walk alone I follow
with knife in hand
I stalk you to devour
your human soul
and bleeding broken body
soon to rot but you're living
as you bleed I'm watching
in your mind you're insane
I hunt you to destroy
you look so ripe to kill your body must suffer
a vengeance to murder
nine victims
I hunt to killwhen you speak your final words to me
with knife in hand
the murder of nine
the evil eye
