

I Lay in My Bed

Tomorrows Tulips

I lay in my bed
Feels so cruel to rest my head
Have you ever thought
There's a feeling
But there's really just not
I look up through my skylights
It's so bright outside
But I wanna stay
In my bed
In my bed
No one there to bother me
No anxiety
Just me and my dreams
I should be outside
But my blankets are so carefree
So I lay in my bed
So I lay in my bed
So I lay in my bed
So I lay in my bed
