No One

Jess Glynne

Ohhh, OhhhSwimming in the deep end
With nowhere to go
My body's on the journey
And my mind can't let go
I'm falling into nothing
Tell me what's left to lose
Thought I knew where I was going
And now I know I need youThey say you're no one
Until you're somebody to someone
They say you're no one
Till someone misses you when you're gone
And now I feel like I've let you down
It's me now who's reaching out
I can't do this on my own
Because you're no one
Until you're somebody to someoneWhen I hit the ground running Trying not to give in
Every step is a hurdle
Don't know where I begin
Holding my mind wide open
When lonely is the truth
Thought I knew where I was going
And now I know I need youThey say you're no one
Until you're somebody to someone
They say you're no one
Till someone misses you when you're gone
And now I feel like I've let you down
It's me now who's reaching out
I can't do this on my own
Because you're no one
Until you're somebody to someoneOh oh
If I came home and it all crashed down
Oh oh
If I have no one else around
Oh oh
Would you be there to pull me up
Oh oh
Could I be that somebody to you?
Please tell, please tell me now

Will I be that somebody to you?
Please tell, please tell me now
Will I be that somebody to you?
To you, to you, to you, to youCould I be that somebody to you?
They say you're no one
Until you're somebody to someone
They say you're no one
Till someone misses you when you're goneAnd now I feel like I've let you down
It's me now who's reaching out
I can't do this on my own
Because you're no one
Until you're somebody to someone
Because you're no one
Until you're somebody to someone
