

This Could Kill Me

Amy Stroup

          All is well,
The spell is broken,
  I am here with ye,
          For a moment.
  Look in your eyes,
Close as well ever be.
          Is this love,
This could kill me,Lets rejoice in where there's love,
          Simple life was not for us,
          It never was,
          It never was,
This could kill me.All is well,
          The spells been broken,
          I am here with you,
          For this moment.
          Look in your eyes,
Close as well ever be.
          This is love,
This could kill me,Lets rejoice in where there's love,
          Simple life was not for us,
          It never was,
          It never was,
          This could kill me.
