

Chicago's Finest

Emmure

They're a million things that i could say
If your down for listening
I never thought i'd feel so alone
I never thought i'd want to come back home
But i chose my path nine years ago
And now theirs no turning back
No theirs no turning back
Theres no turning back
No turning back

I lost everything just to have this
And now my dreams are coming true
And now my dreams are coming true
I lost everything just to have this
And now my dreams are coming true
And now my dreams are coming true
Chase your dreams
Dont live in fear
Chase your dreams
