Fight Forever

Anthem Lights

Tank- Fight Forever
I would rather fight with you
tears fall, hearts break but thats ok through..... im here to stay

Cause i dont wanna let you go
I dont wanna be alone
we done been there before but i can take a little more i would rather fight with ya fight with ya then not spend another night with ya night with ya long as we stay together together we gone fight forever ever ever ever healing fixing everything we broke forgiving forgetting so we can move on its so easy to give up on love cause it hurts you and its worth to but i feel something special in us we can get through let me show you believe in us and we gon make it i need your trust and it wont ever matter what comes our way im standing here telling you today

Promise you wont ever give up even if you break up make up Promise you gon give it time to grow and build a mountain high you know what you gotta do what its gonna take for them to see the truth you gotta keep the faith and youll never lose real love tell em yeah...

I dont wanna let you go
