

Over

Sugarcult

Everybody's watching you breathing in your every move look around when the world is empty look around if your guilty everybody's after you I wait in line to touch you look around if you ever miss me look around cuase it kills me

Its over
theres nothing you can do theres nothing you can say to keep me here
its over
you say were just friends were playing pretend to keep me here every night I lay in bed I think about the thing you've said look around i'm the one your only look around it still kills me

Its over! theres nothing you can do theres nothing you can say
to keep me here
its over! you say were just friends were playing pretend to keep me here

its over!
to keep me here
its over!
to keep me here
its over! to keep me here
its over!

doesn't anyone care?
doesn't anyone care?
doesn't anyone care?
doesn't anyone care?

everybody's watching you and counting down your every move look around when your heart beats empty look around if its guilty

its over!
you say were just friends
were playing pretend to keep me here
its over!
theres nothing you can do theres nothing you can say
to keep me here

its over you say were just friends its almost the end im outa here
its over
im outa here
its over
im outa here
its over
im outa here
its over
