Shop Talk

John Prine

I seen you in your pajamas
Drinking coffee at the House of Pies
Babe, you was flipping for the check
And talking like your tongue was paralyzedWell, you were saying something
That I don't understand
'Bout looking other places
While you're holding my handLet's stop
Let's not
Talk shop
In front of all these guysLet's not
Talk shop
Shop talk
Shop talk is talking something
That you don't realizeLoose lips sink ships, shake hips
Bad tips draw spies
I want you when I can get you
But you only want me on the riseWell, I thought I had your number
But your number's too loud
Now you're standing on the table
And we're drawing a crowdLet's stop
Let's not
Talk shop
In front of all these spiesLet's not
Talk shop
Shop talkLet's not
Talk shop
Shop talk
Shop talk is talking something
That you don't realizeI seen you in your pajamas
Drinking coffee at the House of Pies
Babe, you was flipping for the check
And talking like your tongue was paralyzedWell, you were saying something
That I don't understand
'Bout looking other places
While you're holding my handLet's stop
Let's not
Talk shop
In front of all these guysLet's stop
Let's not

Talk shop
In front of all these guysLet's stop
Let's not
Talk shop
In front of all these guys
