

Crimson Sunset

Mindwalk Blvd

So many questions arise about life about time
And with all that is known and all that is said
I try not to disturb, but only to be heard

The time has come to cast these words from me
And Iâ€™ve seen the crimson sunset shine a thousand times
And Iâ€™ve seen the oceans mystique
Tide by tide
And Iâ€™ve seen all thatâ€™s there to be seen
But I canâ€™t seem to find me

Unquestioned authority
Plotting mind routing crusades the passion that inspires us we use to fuel the flame
Just to feel this way Just to feel the same

The time has come to cast these words from me
And take me to a place where I can be (chorus)

Forever it feels like Iâ€™m searching for me
And the stares of the first kind
Condemning me
(chorus)
