Oh, Catastrophe

Crown The Empire

Oh sweet catastrophe
Now where have you been
I've searched for you so desperately
Inside of this pen
You're the answer I've needed
But the question I've feared
I know light is your mother
But darkness I fear
Sits inside of you silently
Just waiting to crawl
It's way back to the surface
Like an infected scar
I fear balance is over
The balance is gone
Please somebody save us
Please somebody come

Oh catastrophe
Leave me to fade out the light

And uncage the night
