She Came on to Me

John R. Butler

I knew this married couple they ain't married anymore he had a little thing going on with the divorcee next door she found him in a motel room with mirrors above the bed when he saw the gun in her hand here's what her ex-husband said

Darlin', she came on to me
she came on to me
she's the one who bears full the responsibility tonight I try to break it off and set my conscience free but she touched me there, it wasn't fair
she came on to me

I heard about this preacher and a widow in his flock he ministered to her so hard he didn't hear the knock the deacon shrieked and dropped a load of teen religious tracts heard the pastor's voice come from the beast with two backs

Cryin', she came on to me
she came on to me
I wanna walk with god and practice strict morality she do it to me in the rectory jezebel did cast her spell
she came on to me

she came on to me
she came on to me
it don't matter if it sounds a little cowardly besides it is the woman's fault we do the things we do if the doin' gets ya caught say she came on to you

I knew about a high school teacher back in my little town standing in the boiler room his trousers on the ground a sophomore wrapped round him her pigtails comin' loose when the janitor found them here was his excuse

Buddy, she came on to me
she came on to me

all I wanna do is teach advanced geometry she asked for help after school I foolishly agreed she showed me her diameter
she came on to me

downtown at the courthouse a mortician was arraigned for relations most unseemly with the recently deceased and drained they found him lying on her having done the deed then before his honor here's how the man did plead

Your honor, she came on to me
she came on to me
she was lyin' there with such provocativity I put up some resistance then gave in reluctantly to her silent insistence

she came on to me
five little words to help you in an emergency
and if the doin' gets ya caught say she came on to you
