I Am Sorry

Martin Levac

I remember every move and every word you said
But it seems that I was hiding from you then
I regret the screaming the mind games and the pain
When the smallest thing I said would start a fight

But now Iâ€™m sorry I gave up and ran away
Cosâ€™ I was so afraid to stay oh oh â€¦.
Yes I am sorry didnt mean to let you down
But there is no way to turn around now , oh to turn around

I remember every lie and every last goodbye
When we were trying so hard to hold on to our love
I regret that I made you cry with the bad things Iâ€™ve said
But you know I was just trying to find my way

But now Iâ€™m sorry I gave up and ran away
Cosâ€™ I was so afraid to stay oh oh â€¦.
Yes I am sorry didnt mean to let you down
But there is no way to turn around now , oh to turn around

We just did not realized how much we can hurt each other
But I can promise you that I loved you with all my heart
And if I just knew then what I know now
It would be so different today oh oh â€¦..
