

Catching Feelings

DJ Finesse

Now you wanna catch the feelings
Mmm, mmm, mmm, mmm
Now you wanna catch the feelings
(Just a bit older now)
Now you wanna catch the feelings
Now you wanna catch the feelings
(And I wonder why, why?)
Now you wanna catch the feelings
Now you wanna catch the feelingsStarted out as best friends
Just a bit older now
I remember when
We would stay up all nightTalking on the telephone
Rapping till the sun came up
It's so funny how
Things have changed 'causeNow I don't know, exactly what to say
To find out if she feels the same way
And if she don't then that will break my heart
I'll keep it to myself even though
I know that it will be hardI'm catching feelings
That I've never done before
I can't believe, I'm falling for her
I'm catching feelings
Don't wanna hold back no more
'Cause she's the only one I adore
(She's the only one I adore)I tried to hide the, the way I feel for her
But when she's near me, I tend to let it show
Like getting jealous when others talk to her
Why can't I get the nerve to call
And let my feelings show girl?Now I don't know, exactly what to say
To find out if she feels the same way
And if she don't then that will break my heart
I'll keep it to myself even though
I know that it will be hardI'm catching feelings
That I've never done before
I can't believe, I'm falling for her
I'm catching feelings
Don't wanna hold back no more
'Cause she's the only one I adore
(Girl I adore you)I'm catching feelings

That I've never done before
I can't believe, I'm falling for her
I'm catching feelings
Don't wanna hold back no more
'Cause she's the only one I adore
Although I dream of you becoming my girl
I also wanna be your best friend
'Cause you're the only girl I want in my world
I try to front but I just can't begin
I'm catching feelings
That I've never done before
I can't believe I'm falling for her
I'm catching feelings
Don't wanna hold back no more
'Cause she's the only one I adore
(I'm catching feelings)
I never thought, I'd fall for her
Being friends was cool enough
I miss the way we used to roll
But I have to catch these feelings
(I'm catching feelings)
I never can build up the nerve
(Don't wanna hold back no more)
Or the words to say to her
I really, really miss the way we used to be
I'm catching feelings
That I've never done before
I can't believe, I'm falling for her
I'm catching feelings
Don't wanna hold back no more
'Cause she's the only one I adore
