Until Then...

Sully Erna

Lie, awake
and Watching you runthrough my head I'm alone again
but not for long my friend
We face, another day
And distance has come, and taken you far away again but ill see you soon my friend and then ill sing you my song
I cant
Go home alone again
No I can't
My friend
Until then
Eyes I recognize Taken me back, familiar to me from some other time or maybe another life
remember our time and know who I am the memory it stays until we can breath as 1 again and I'm coming back my friend

and then ill sing you my song
Oh yeah
I can't
go home alone again
No I cant
go home all alone again
no I can't
my friend
Until then
And I cant
go home alone again
no I can't
go home alone again
no I cant
go home all alone again
No i cant
my friend
Until then
