Fades

Reed Robertson

Safe, now and always.
A place we can hide away.
Feeling so alive since the day I found you.
Living every moment just to be around you.
Safe, now and always.

But love, it burns.
When will I learn to take it or leave it.
Cause I've had enough
and Love fades.

The games that our hearts play
They say it'll all be okay.
Head up in the clouds couldn't get much better.
I thought that you would be the one to last forever,
but Wait, just wait.

But love, it burns.
When will I learn to take it or leave it.
Cause I've had enough
and Love fades.
(Repeat)
