Damn You

Lullacry

If the truth won't set you free
Then a lie will save you
Can you see the face of the God in meI am the bringer of your destiny
Well, Goddamn, it's not worth the painSell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, Goddamn, give my soul a rest
Damn youIf the faith won't break you down
Then you must be the one
Can you feel the hand of the God on youI am the hammer for your misery
Well, Goddamn, it's not worth the painSell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, Goddamn, give my soul a rest
Damn youSell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, temptation loves you anyway
Damn you, I damn youSell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, Goddamn, give my soul a rest
Damn youSell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, temptation loves you anyway
Damn you, I damn you
