

Damn You

Lullacry

If the truth won't set you free
Then a lie will save you
Can you see the face of the God in me I am the bringer of your destiny
Well, Goddamn, it's not worth the pain Sell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, Goddamn, give my soul a rest
Damn you If the faith won't break you down
Then you must be the one
Can you feel the hand of the God on you I am the hammer for your misery
Well, Goddamn, it's not worth the pain Sell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, Goddamn, give my soul a rest
Damn you Sell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, temptation loves you anyway
Damn you, I damn you Sell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, Goddamn, give my soul a rest
Damn you Sell your soul to someone else
You fool
Well, temptation loves you anyway
Damn you, I damn you
