

Hate to Feel

Mortal Love

My heart is still broken
Forever my soul is frozen
Still watching the rain to fall
Forever standing in the cold all aloneI'll stay here to the end
Another day to start
Another day to break my heart
With love, still no romance
The fragile pieces of my soul
Belongs to youI hate to feel
I wish I couldn't feel at allDon't ask why I have to leave
Don't know why I still breathe
Don't understand why I'm still here
Hididng all my thoughts for you, saving my Love for you
Once again I'm living inside myself
