All I Want (feat. Minon Sarten)

"All I Want" - James Fortune
(feat. Minon Sarten)

Verse 1
We all want to feel accepted
And experience real love
But our own emotions try to convince us
That we'll never be good enough
No longer feeling like a mistake
Found by a grace that I can't escape

Chorus
Jesus it's You
Who understands the language of my tears
The broken parts of me that haven't healed
But you're working on me
You still working on me

Verse 2
No more favor
I don't need it
I'm so tired of all the lies
Will anyone go
The extra mile to
See this hurt I've had with a smile
No more excuses
No one to blame
I've found a love that will never change

Chorus
Jesus it's You
Who understands the language of my tears
The broken parts of me that haven't healed
Jesus it's You
Who understands the language of my tears
The broken parts of me that have been healed

All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more

Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus

Don't take your love away
Don't take your love away, love away
Don't take your love away
Don't take your love away, love away
Don't take your love away
Don't take your love away, love away
Don't take your love away, love away
Don't take your love away, love away
Don't take your love away, love away
Don't take your love away, love away

All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus

All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus

All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus

Jesus it's You
Who understands the language of my tears
The broken parts of me that haven't healed
Jesus it's You
Who understands the language of my tears
The broken parts of me that haven't healed
But you're working on me

James Fortune....

Jesus it's You
Who understands the language of my tears
The broken parts of me that haven't healed
Jesus it's You
Who understands the language of my tears
The broken parts of me that haven't healed
But you're working on me
You still working on me

All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
All I want is more, more
Of You Jesus
