

Fuel My Fire

L7

I've got a word of thanks
Thanks that I'd like to say
For the rage that I feel
For the rage that I feel todayGotta stack, gotta stack
Stack the chips on my shoulder
In everything I do, 'cause I made, I made, I made
The mistake the mistake of trusting youPeople like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuelYeah my layers are thick
And I got a bad attitude
Yeah that knife in my back
Has fingerprints that belong to youGotta grudge gotta grudge gotta grudge
That I'm holding for as long as I live
'Cause you lied, you lied, you lied to my face
And that's something that I can't forgivePeople like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
Oh, people like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuelLiar, liar, liar, liar, liarPeople like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
Oh, people like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuelLiar, liar, you liar, you liar, liarPeople like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel
