Worth It

Aleksander With

You say you wanna know what there's about me
You say you wanna know my secrets too
Well, I tried for years to keep some sort of distance
And that is why I kept it all from you

You do things to me that I'm not used to
Usually I'll leave, then you won't know
Before it's way too late and we can't change it
Well this time for the first time
I won't go

If you think we're worth it
We are worth it
I won't fight it
For the first time
I will see where this will end

If you think we're worth it
We are worth it
I won't fight it
I will be here
I'll be here
No more pretend

You ask for me to trust that you are different
What has been before, well, that is not the same
And the demonds of your past you must let go of
If I've had enough and leave, they are to blame

If you think we're worth it
We are worth it
I won't fight it
For the first time
I will see where this will end

If you think we're worth it
We are worth it
I won't fight it
I will be here
I'll be here

No more pretend

You do things to me that I'm not used to
Usually I'll leave, and you won't know
Before it's way too late and we can't change it
Well this time for the first time
I won't go

If you think we're worth it
We are worth it
I won't fight it
For the first time
I will see where this will end

If you think we're worth it
We are worth it
I won't fight it
I will be here
I'll be here
No more pretend
