Ascend

Nine Lashes

i've got the life i'm living it up i take flight no time for ground below me you are the wings to live my soul and we touch the sky im giving it up i knew the life no settle for the clouds below me i want you and you alone you never let me down let me down
for nobody just the mountain's high you never let me down let me down im lost in you again
you would call me loud then flying with the stars again i can hear your soul within and it's calling me now now not to be alone again
together we ascend
together we ascend
you search the night without me looking for the daylight blind eyes never got me here you are the light into my soul
you never let me down let down
now to not be alone again
together we ascend
together we ascend
together we ascend
you would call me out then

and it calling me now
together we ascend
