Trouble

Mark Chesnutt

You're gonna get me into trouble
I knew it right off the bat
You're gonna get me into trouble
If you keep lookin' like thatWell, I may be alone, but there's someone at home
I just know I'm makin' a mistake
A woman like you walks in a place like this
You can almost hear the promises breakYou're gonna make me need an alibi
You're gonna make me have to watch my back
You're gonna make me have to tell a bunch of lies
You're gonna make me have to cover my tracksWell, I told her I wouldn't, I thought I couldn't
Now I'm so ashamed
When I look at you, that's all that I can do
To think about what's-her-nameYou're gonna get me into trouble
I knew it right off the bat
You're gonna get me in trouble
If you keep lookin' like thatDon't look like that, baby...no, no, no, noYou're gonna mix my emotions
And you're gonna tangle my net
You're gonna make me do somethin'
That I'm afraid I won't regretI may be alone, but there's someone at home
I just know I'm makin' a mistake
A woman like you walks in a place like this
You can almost hear the promises breakYou're gonna get me in trouble
You're gonna get me into trouble
You know you're gonna get me, you know you're gonna get me,
You know you're gonna get me in trouble, now don't ya?
