

20¢ Goodbye

Goldfinger

Went out today to try and phone you
I guess you didn't recognize my call
The lady on your end said you got caller I.D. But I'm feeling sorry
That you've been woken up so much
And I'm feeling guilty
Just talk to me, please, talk to me I hardly know you
Is it too late to even try?
I wanna know you
Another 20 cent goodbye I found a pay phone and it's busted
Another broken hearted fool
But still I pick up the receiver
My lips are touching someone's drool Please make this worth it
You're all I'm thinking of today
I know you're worth it
Just talk to me, please, talk to me I hardly know you
Is it too late to even try?
I want to know you
Another 20 cent goodbye Goodbye
Another 20 cent goodbye
Another 20 cents I hardly know you
Is it too late to even try?
I wanna know you
Another 20 cent goodbye I hardly know you
Is it too late to even try?
I wanna know you
Another 20 cent goodbye
