

Rooting For My Baby

Miley Cyrus

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh When you wake in the morning
And I can tell it's not your best side
No good morning, good day
I stay to the right if I know you're mad
And nonetheless, I stay out of your way Just hold on
In a minute it'll be over and gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone I know, I know
That you go through a lot
I know, I know
The pressure makes you high
See I know, I know
Cause you still know what you got
I know, I know
Yeah Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
I'm rooting for my baby
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Yeah You know, if you were here I'd get your beer
And I would hang your coat
You'd wanna be home
So you'd roll up your sleeves
And you'd sweat and breathe
This is a long road
So much more to go Just hold on
In a minute it'll be over and gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone I know, I know
That you go through a lot
I know, I know
That the pressure makes you high
See I know, I know
Cause you still know what you've got
I know, I know
Yeah Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
I'm rooting for my baby

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
YeahSee, I've been dream-catching
I got that this is everlasting
Life filled with you, me, love and laughter
Happily ever afterSo hold on
That you go through a lot
I know, I know
That the pressure makes you high
I know, I know
YeahOoh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
I'm rooting for my baby
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
YeahI'm rooting for you baby, yeah
I'm rooting for my baby, yeah
That you go through a lot
You still know what you've got, yeah
