

Resistor

Alisha's Attic

You are the stars above my head
You are everything, I've no safety net
And I accept I'm addicted to this kiss
Breathless and intense you consume me
Like you've found a growing space
And I have no defense
Then my radar sends a warning, trying to numb my soul
Trying to keep control but I'm falling, yes, I'm falling
The resistor has been breaking down inside me
The resistor has been breaking down inside me
You are the stake I'd never bet
Till I had this dream that we were wed
And it was something I felt quite easy about
Funny that I'm not scared

Not a bit
Of giving everything for the first time
Then my radar sends a warning, trying to numb my soul
Trying to keep control but I'm falling, yes, I'm falling
The resistor has been breaking down inside me
It's too late, it's too late, it's too late
It's too late, it's too late, it's too late, it's too late
Then my radar sends a warning, trying to numb my soul
Trying to keep control but I'm falling, yes, I'm falling
The resistor has been breaking down inside me
Then my radar sends a warning, trying to numb my soul
Trying to keep control but I'm falling, yes, I'm falling
The resistor has been breaking down inside me
