

Speakeasy

The So So Glos

ey could ya, do me a favor?
quit calling up from an anonymous place there was a corner bodega, we used to hit up you would say it to your face but those days done gone now all you can do is hide behind a screen inside a coffee shop another cyber cop shot down on the spot, speakin' it easy, in the N.N.Y.C.
I'm gonna hear it from N.Y.P.D., because its' never been such a crime to be free
speak easy
I told him stay away he couldn't hear what I was trying to say who is this dude from L.A.? he's gonna kill us all roll out the super-mall he's got a thousand ways to talk but he got no voice at all speaking it easy in the N.N.Y.C.
If you got what it takes to speak easy then you know so it's undeniably so Im gonna hear it from the kids in 2D because everybody's lost in the gleam but its like nobody is talking to me when my brains blown out maybe then they'll learn to speak easy i guess we're gonna have to wait and see speaking it easy in the N.N.Y.C.
I'm gonna hear it from the N.Y.P.D.
They're gonna stick me in a box down a stream here they come, let them come come on, come on everyone New N.Y.C. is where you'll find me doing time in custody its never been such a crime to be free
