Love At Your Momentum

No Address

Katie's just a little girl who
Always never talk or laugh, listen
She just wants me to wait here for a while
But since I really don't like waiting
And since I think it doesn't matter
Katie, you can see me when I'm gone, oh
I don't like this, no, I just won't buy it
And I don't wanna try it no more
I don't like this, no, I just won't buy it
And I don't wanna try it no more
So maybe on the weekend we can
Go out to the movie theater
Or catch some dinner down there at the scene
But when I go and make some time
Katie says that I'm not truthful
And I guess there's always something I don't say
I don't like this, no, I just won't buy it
And I don't wanna try it no more, no more, no more
I don't like this, no, I just won't buy it, I'm out
But Katie, you can see me when I'm gone

But Katie, can you see me when I've Gone away in the park without you in the dark
But girl, when you went to stand
I just couldn't help but to pull your hand
Yeah, she walk around the town
With, with her fat lip bulging
She shows her crooked teeth
And her eyes are all wicked
Love at your momentum
I'm skipping like a stone
Yeah, I'm tired of screwin' up
And I'm tired of screwin' you, girl
I don't like this, no, I just won't buy it
And I don't wanna try it no more, no more, no more
I don't like this, no, I just won't buy it, I'm out
Katie, you can see me when I'm gone
Katie can you can see me when I'm gone?
So, why is love so [Incomprehensible]
