Lonely Ghosts

O+S

The devil that you know is better than the one you don't and so it goes

Like lonely ghosts
at a roadside cross
we stay because we don't know where else
to go

The places are old haunts won't miss us when we're gone. we can never move on

So like lonely ghosts
at a roadside cross
we stay...

The devil that you know is better than the one you don't

Like lonely ghosts
at a roadside cross
we stay because
to go

We stay because
to go
