Until Then...

Sully Erna

Lie, awake
Watching you run through my head
I'm alone again
But not for long my friendWe face another day,
And distance has come,
And taken you far away again,
But I'll see you soon my friend,
And then I'll sing you my songI can't Go home alone again
No I can't
My friend
Until thenEyes I recognize
Taking me back, familiar to me from some other time
Or maybe another life
Remember our time
And know who I am,
The memory stays,
Until we can breath as one again
And I'm coming back my friend
And then I'll sing you my songOh yeah
I can't
Go home alone again
No I can't
Go home all alone again
No I can't
My friend
Until thenAnd I can't
Go home alone again
No I can't
Go home alone again
No I can't
Go home all alone again
No I can't
My friend
Until then
