

B.C.

Sparks

My name's Aaron

Hers is Betty

Our boy is a Charlie, so the neighbors sing "hooray for ABC"

ABC forever, each endeavour that I do, I do to keep together

A+B+C

BC, Betty, Betty, get back here

BC, Charlie, Charlie, get back here

You're conveniently forgetting our little wedding

So much for our ABC

Say hello to instability

Everyone we know is shifting to, is shifting fro, with

The exception of we 3, we're ABC

Aaron, Betty, Charlie, here today and here

Tomorrow, I can hear them sing "Here, here" for ABC

BC, Betty, Betty, get back here

BC, Charlie, Charlie, get back here

Three was never crowded, our little house did house three handsomely

BC, Betty, Betty, get back here

BC, Charlie, Charlie, get back here

You're conveniently forgetting our little wedding, our honeymoon beside the sea

You just cannot believe in ABC

If you can't believe in ABC, you can't believe, you

Can't believe, you can't believe, you can't believe

Rumours spread like tumours, too too fast and too too true

Oh, Betty, Charlie, Betty, Charlie don't you leave

BC, that takes care of ABC

BC, that takes care of ABC

Once the fixture of the ages, the Yellow Pages start

With baby's needs

BC, back to swinging in the trees

BC, back to crawling on my knees

Aaron's here without a Betty

Without a Charlie

So much for our ABC

So much for our stability

So much for our stability
So much for our A+B+C
