

Back Porch

Dierks Bentley

Chillin' on a back porch, oh yeah
Chillin' on a back porch, oh yeah Ain't no line around the corner, no security,
No velvet rope, no dress code, everybody's VIP,
You can wear your hat, dance in your bare feet,
No credit card, no roll of cash, just BYOB Woah oh oh, chillin' on a back porch
Little hottie swingin' up in the swing
Them good ol' boys pickin' six string
Woah oh oh, leave your trouble at the door
No cover charge, get in for free
No last call, let's party on the back porch
(Chillin' on the back porch, oh yeah)
(Chillin' on the back porch, oh yeah) Got a tin roof on the top just in case it rains
Got a kiddie pool off the deck for those hot as hell days
Got beer on ice, all day, all night
Now if that sounds like something you like, come on Woah oh oh, chillin' on a back porch
Little hottie swingin' up in the swing
Them good ol' boys pickin' six string
Woah oh oh, leave your trouble at the door
No cover charge, get in for free
No last call, let's party on the back porch Woah oh oh, chillin' on a back porch
Little hottie swingin' up in the swing
Them good ol' boys pickin' six string
Woah oh oh, leave your trouble at the door
No cover charge, get in for free
No last call, let's party on the back porch, chillin' on a back porch Little hottie swingin' up in the swing
Them good ol' boys pickin' six string
Woah oh oh, leave your trouble at the door
No cover charge, get in for free
No last call, so let's party on a back porch (Chillin' on a back porch, ah yeah)
On a back porch
(Chillin' on a back porch, ah yeah) Little hottie swingin' up in the swing
Them good ol' boys pickin' five string
No cover charge, get in for free
No last call, so let's party on a back porch Chillin' on a back porch, oh yeah
Chillin' on a back porch, oh yeah
