Any Less Alone

Brian Dolzani

The sun goes down behind the mountains
The rivers stop flowing to the sea
The moonlight wonâ€™t shine through my window
Is there still a love for you and me

All the bars and cafes are empty
Everyone has all gone home
The wild wind is blowing gently
I could not feel any less alone

The people that I knew back in high school
I wonder where they are today
The ones who seemed to have a golden ticket
The ones who went too far and slipped away

The sun goes down behind the mountains
A part of me is sad to watch it go
Another part is happy that I knew you
And then I feel a little less alone
