Fighting For My Love

Nil Lara

I was taught when I was young to share myself to show my love
Smile at everyone Oh to shine above the sun
Now I'm standing next to you I think I've changed my point of view
I've noticed you can tell
You're fighting for my loveFor my love, yes you're fighting for my love
For my love, yes you're fighting for my loveMany times I tried to talk to let you know someday I'd walk
In me you found a drug an addiction to my love
I could swear I let you know I tried one day to let you go
You fight me all along
Yes you're fighting for my loveFor my love, yes you're fighting for my love
For my love, yes you're fighting for my loveI know how it feels I've been burned one time before
I still feel the scars on my lips
When I touch when I love when I kiss
When I kissNow I'm calling back for you I figured out I'm missing you
You're nowhere to be found oh I've asked and looked around
Seems you found a better fish I must confess I had a wish
To love you all along
But you're fighting for my love
Fighting for my loveFor my love, yes you're fighting for my love
For my love, yes you're fighting for my loveFight meOh yes yes yes you're wanting my love
You don't know how you're missing my love
Oh yes yes yes you're needing my love
You don't know how you're fighting my love
